A TESTIMONIAL FOR TOM BEGLEY, JR., ESQUIRE AND STAFF

Dear Mr. Begley,

My wife and I recently completed the Estate Planning Process offered by your firm, and I want to take this opportunity to compliment you on the professional manner in which we were handled.

We were directed to your firm by my brother in law Paul Sipala, who assured us that we would be happy with the service rendered.

Our actual experience mirrored that recommendation.

Starting with the calling for the appointment, and proceeding right through to the signing of the actual documents, we felt as if we were valued and respected by your staff. Everyone made every effort to understand our requests and concerns, and to address them quickly and completely.

I know from the meeting we had with you that your firm is following a quality improvement process, and I want to say that from our viewpoint it is effective. We were especially impressed by the effort of all your team to seek input as to what can be improved.

Please accept this letter as a sincere thank you to yourself, and to your entire team for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Richard P. Vogl

Thank you, Mr. Vogl for your letter of commendation regarding the services you received at Begley and Bookbinder.

DANA BOOKBINDER NAMED PARTNER OF ELDER LAW FIRM

Dana E. Bookbinder has been named as a partner of the Moorestown law firm now known as Begley & Bookbinder, P.C. The firm name change and simultaneous shift in management became effective September 1, 2002. Ms. Bookbinder has been associated with the firm since 1996, where she and Thomas D. Begley, Jr. have developed and expanded their respective practices in Medicaid Planning, Medicaid Applications, Estate Planning, Estate and Trust Administration, Guardianships, and Special Needs Trusts.

In addition to actively serving her communities through volunteer work in elder law with local county bar associations, Ms. Bookbinder currently serves as the Chair of the Elder Law Section for the New Jersey State Bar Association. The Elder Law Section, consisting of approximately 400 attorneys from across the State, sponsors legal education seminars for attorneys and the public and meets regularly to discuss elder law issues. She is also a former chair of the Burlington County Real Estate/Probate Committee.

Ms. Bookbinder is a frequent author and lecturer on asset, estate and tax planning topics. She is an active member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and a life member of The National Registry of Who's Who. She is a member of the New Jersey, Pennsylvania and District of Columbia bar associations. She received her B.A. with distinction from Cornell University and her J.D. from the George Washington University.

In addition to preparing Wills, Living Wills, Powers of Attorney and Trusts for clients, Begley & Bookbinder, P.C. counsels incapacitated and/or aged individuals concerned with long term care costs and maintaining the standard of living of their spouses or other family members. The firm has offices in Moorestown, Stone Harbor, and Lawrenceville, New Jersey, and has recently opened an office in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia office is in Two Penn Center Plaza, located at 1500 John F. Kennedy Blvd. For additional information or to schedule a consultation, please call (800)533-7227.
